Ruth Eastwood

Well, it's been a pretty exciting year so far, what with our anniversary celebrations, commissioning and creating our own summer show and, to top it all, hosting a royal visit from the Countess of Wessex!

Now we're racing towards the Christmas season and looking well into the new year. You'll find comedy, drama, music and dance to tempt you out in the following pages. With a triple bill from the Royal Shakespeare Company and the return of Breakin' Convention, we're looking forward to welcoming as diverse a set of artists as you, our lovely audiences. We are still raising money to mend our beautiful dome, any help you can give us will be gratefully received.

It's a sunny afternoon in the Home Counties... Sally Driscoll is watering her plants in the conservatory of her luxurious home after an afternoon sunbathing. John Barrett is not selling double glazing... it becomes clear that he is there looking for someone to take the blame for his wife's accident.

Dangerously obsessed and determined to seek retribution, Barrett strips away the conflicting secrets of the Driscoll's apparently perfect lives, until his twisted revenge climaxes in the devastating conclusion of this compulsive psycho thriller.

'Dangerous Obsession sizzles with tension.' London Theatre Guide

'Terrific piece of theatre. Highly recommended.' Nottingham Post

'An 'edge of the seat' piece of theatre with twists that you don't see coming.' Theatre Reviews

Private Peaceful

Divided by love. United by war.

'I've had nearly eighteen years of yesterdays and tomorrows, and tonight I must remember as many of them as I can. Tonight, more than any other night of my life, I want to feel alive!'

Private Peaceful relives the life of Private Tommo Peaceful, a young First World War soldier awaiting the firing squad at dawn. During the night, he looks back at his short but joyful past: his exciting first days at school; the accident in the forest that killed his father; his adventures with Molly, the love of his life; and the battles and injustices of war that brought him to the front line.

By the Waters of Liverpool

Adapted by Rob Fennah. Directed by Gareth Tudor Price.

Mark Moraghan, Sian Reeves, Parry Glasspool, Lucy Dixon and Eric Potts join Lynn Francis, Danny O'Brien, Roy Carruthers and Chloe McDonald. Adapted from Helen Forrester's million-selling book, By The Waters Of Liverpool is a stunning period drama set in the 1930s.

Helen is sixteen years old and fighting a bitter battle with her parents for the right to educate herself and go out to work. During the Great Depression, Helen's father lost his fortune when the stock market crashed and the family were suddenly thrown into poverty. Leaving behind the nannies, servants and comfortable middle-class life in the South West of England, the Forrester's chose Liverpool as the place to start over. Taken out of school to care for her younger brothers and sister, Helen is treated as an unpaid slave and desperate to escape. By 1939, now aged twenty and with Britain on the brink of war, she has still never been kissed by a man.

Gary Clarke Company presents

Wasteland

Marking 25 years since the demolition of Grimethorpe Colliery and 30 years since the rise of UK rave culture, WASTELAND, Gary Clarke's sequel to COAL, looks at how two generations coped in this era of radical upheaval. As one grinds to a halt, we follow the next into the 90s illegal rave scene, where derelict warehouses and abandoned work spaces became home for a new-found community of music and dance.

Bringing together Clarke's exceptional dancers, community singers, brass musicians, archive footage, powerful rave soundtrack and artwork by Jimmy Cauty (The KLF), WASTELAND dives head first into a gritty story of loss, hope, escapism and survival.

Holes

By Louis Sachar. Directed by Adam Penford.

Stanley Yelnats can't catch a break. Born into a family cursed with bad luck, it comes as no surprise when he finds himself accused of a crime he didn't commit.

Sent to a labour camp as punishment, he is tasked with digging one hole, five-foot-wide by five-foot-deep, every day. He's told it is to build 'character'. But the tyrannical Warden is definitely hiding something. How will Stanley and his fellow inmates deal with her demands, her two cronies, plus the fearsome rattlesnakes and yellow-spotted lizards? And will Stanley and his new friends unearth what's really going on?

Holes is the brilliant, inventive and creative new stage show based on the multi-award winning novel and the Hollywood blockbuster.

Komedija Entertainment & Live Nation Present

Count Arthur Strong: Is There Anybody Out There?

As well as being the all-round entertainer we all know and love from the telly, Count Arthur Strong is also a lifelong fan of astronomy, since having been given a microscope, or whatever it is they use, for Christmas when he was a small precocious baby. In fact, it's said the first word he spoke was 'Uranus'. In this, his brand-new show, he seamlessly combines the very best showbiz entertainment you'll currently find, in the world, possibly? as he wrestles with some of the big questions that other all-round entertainers shy away from. Such as: Are we alone in the universe?, Is there life on Mars bars?, 2lbs of potatoes, packet of ginger nuts and don't lose this shopping list.

Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em

Starring Joe Pasquale.

Hilarious mishaps and DIY disasters are bringing the house down, quite literally, as Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em hits the road with Joe Pasquale (New Faces, I'm a Celebrity, Spamalot, The Producers) as the lovable accident-prone Frank Spencer.

Betty has exciting news for Frank, but he's preoccupied by possible newfound fame as a magician. With guests arriving for dinner and crossed wires all round, priceless misunderstandings are on the menu.

Based on the 1970s classic TV comedy by Ray Allen and directed by the award-winning Guy Unsworth, Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em is the ultimate feel-good night out, washed down with lashings of nostalgia and Mother's prune wine.

Quite Frank-ly, it's a hit!

'The irresistibly daft, likeable human Frank of brilliant Mr Pasquale.' Daily Mail

Julian Clary: Born to Mince

'Are you ready for some filth? I know I am. Time once again for me to sally forth and pleasure the provinces with my particular brand of saucy innuendo. Let me at them!'

In this outrageously camp show, (that he was going to call Bed Knobs and Knee Pads but was advised might not sell too well in Harrogate), renowned homosexual Julian Clary will bare his soul as never before in the interests of light entertainment.

He'll murder some well known songs along the way, no doubt, read you a sneak preview from his next memoir A Night At the Lubricant and make withering remarks about punters foolish enough to sit in the front row. You know the kind of thing. It's the only life he knows.

SHREK

THE MUSICAL

Jeanine Tesori

Blackpool Operatic Players presents

SHREK

The Musical

Everyone's favourite ogre is back in the hilarious stage spectacle based on the Oscar-winning smash hit film.

Based on the Oscar-winning DreamWorks Animation film, Shrek The Musical is a Tony Award-winning fairy tale adventure featuring all new songs from Jeanine Tesori (Thoroughly Modern Millie, Caroline or Change) and a side-splitting book by David Lindsay-Abaire. Shrek brings all the beloved characters you know from the film to life on stage and proves there's more to the story than meets the ears.

'Once upon a time, there was a little ogre named Shrek...' And thus begins the tale of an unlikely hero who finds himself on a life-changing journey alongside a wisecracking Donkey and a feisty princess who resists her rescue. Throw in a short-tempered bad guy, a cookie with an attitude, and over a dozen other fairy tale misfits, and you've got the kind of mess that calls for a real hero. Luckily, there's one on hand...and his name is Shrek.

Shrek presents a treasure trove of creative opportunities including costumes, sets, puppets (there is a fire-breathing dragon after all), and more! Irreverently fun for the whole family, Shrek proves that beauty is truly in the eye of the ogre.

SHREK The Musical is presented by Blackpool Operatic Players.

Harpy

By Philip Meeks. Starring Su Pollard

Birdie's a hoarder. The neighbours call her a harridan and a harpy, although most have never even met her. They see her hoard as a hazard for house prices. But it isn't rubbish. It's her life's work and it exists because years ago something deeply cherished was stolen from her, and Birdie's not been able to give up anything since. She'll do anything to get this priceless thing back. Anything at all. National treasure Su Pollard gives a one-woman tour-de-force performance in this razor-sharp and bittersweet drama from Fringe First award winner Philip Meeks (Kiss Me Honey, Honey!, Murder, Margaret and Me).

'Su Pollard gives the performance of her life, an unmissable tour-de-force of comedy and drama brought together in a fantastically constructed piece of theatre.' Theatre Weekly
