Ambassador Theatre Group presents:

Ian McKellen on stage

Monday 20 May [SOLD OUT]

This event has been kindly supported by Friends of The Grand.

'I'm celebrating my 80th birthday by touring anew solo show to theatres I know well and a few that I don't.

The show starts with Gandalf and will probably end with an invitation to act with me on stage. In-between there will be anecdotes and acting. I open at my local arts centre in January and end up by August in Orkney.

Live theatre has always been thrilling to me, as an actor and in the audience. Growing up in Lancashire, I was grateful to those companies who toured beyond London and I've always enjoyed repaying that debt by touring up and down the country myself, with the RSC, the National Theatre, Prospect Theatre, the Actors' Company, as well as with commercial productions.

Growing up in Wigan and Bolton, I was always intrigued by the glamour of Blackpool, its shows and Illuminations. So, I wanted to present my new solo show at the beautiful Matcham Grand Theatre, raising funds for the spectacular building. See you there, I hope!' Ian McKellen

125 Years- A Celebration

Anniversaries provide a natural desire to look back, but I'm far more interested in looking forward; forward to a future with The Grand at the heart of the community it has served for 125 years. It's a future that offers far more than just a theatre.

On any given day there might be a group of local school children exploring the themes of the play on the stage and how it relates to their lives; a rehearsal by our young company made up of a wide range of local young people; a workshop by an emerging professional theatre group developing a ground-breaking new piece of work - and that's all on top of the show that evening.

And what a collection of shows! From top comedians and singers to world class drama (including a visit by the Royal Shakespeare Company and an opening National Tour), musicals, opera, dance and children's shows.

It's going to be a great anniversary year – enjoy the ride!

Awakening

Wednesday 27 March

Choreography by Fernando Melo, Caroline Finn and Marcos Morau.

Three unique dances to amuse and amaze. Afterimage is a journey of fleeting images; of appearance and disappearance. Mirrors are used on stage to form a unique theatrical experience where the past and the present collide with a poetic and creative style of dance.

Revellers' Mass delves into a sumptuous world of ritual. An unlikely group gathers for a dinner party, where convictions, tradition and social etiquette are put to the test in an unexpected evening of revelry.

The animated choreography and curious characters are inspired by iconic paintings and historical events. Tundra traverses barren landscape where ultramodern creativity blinks into life. Blackpool and Fylde Light Opera Company presents:

42nd Street

Wednesday 29 May to Saturday 1 June

Music by Lyrics by Harry Warren Al Dubin. Book by Michael Stewart & Mark Bramble. Based on the Novel by Bradford Ropes. Original Direction and Dances by Gower Champion. Originally Produced on Broadway by David Merrick.

42nd Street tells the story of Peggy Sawyer, a talented young performer with stars in her eyes who gets her big break on Broadway.

Peggy arrives to New York City from her hometown of Allentown, Pennsylvania, armed with her tap shoes and big dreams. Peggy's talent catches the eye of legendary Broadway director Julian Marsh, who gives her a spot in the chorus of Pretty Lady, his newest show.

The show however already has a classic Broadway diva, who of course takes an instant dislike to Peggy. When the star of the show is injured during previews, Pretty Lady looks like closure, unless of course a new girl talented lead can be found – someone maybe like Peggy Sawyer! 42nd Street features the iconic songs 42nd Street, We're In the Money, I Only Have Eyes For You, Lullaby of Broadway, Dames and Shuffle Off To Buffalo.

Grand Creative Programme

Every year we help thousands of young people enjoy live performances, share in the magic of making theatre, gain Arts Award qualifications and learn new skills with professional artists. We are proud to work in partnership with schools across Blackpool, Wyre and the Fylde. This year local young people will perform on the main stage in Schools Alive, the Shakespeare Festival, numerous amateur productions and alongside the professionals from the RSC in Romeo and Juliet.

In celebration of this special year, we are excited to cocommission two incredible companies, 20 Stories High and Theatre Rites, who are making a dynamic new work for early years and families called Big Up! They describe it as 'Hip Hop meets the Muppets!' There will be dance, beatboxing, puppets and new music for younger audiences and their parents to enjoy.
